

How to Apply for the Vorsanger Smith Award

Students who wish to be nominated should consult their faculty advisor who should write a letter of nomination to the Chair of the Graduate Policy Committee by April 2nd. Awardees are selected on the basis of all-round excellence in the program including consistently high quality course work, exemplary performance as teaching assistant or research assistant, presentation at academic conferences, published papers, steady progress toward dissertation completion, and service to the department