

GRADUATE STUDIES IN SOCIOLOGY DUKE UNIVERSITY

STUDENT INFORMATION FOR ANNUAL REVIEW

During the spring semester of each year (usually in mid-February), the full faculty assesses students' academic performance in an Annual Review of Graduate Students. Before the review, students should inform the Director of Graduate Studies, their advisory committees or their dissertation supervising Committee of any aspects of their activities that might not be available in their records.

NAME: _____ YEAR MATRICULATED: _____

ADVISOR: _____ (Note: All second year students must have an Advisor by the Annual Review.)

SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE (if relevant): _____, Chairman; _____,
_____, _____, _____.

Briefly indicate your activities during the previous year.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE:

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

PARTICIPATION IN PROFESSIONAL MEETINGS AND/OR CONFERENCES:

Indicate papers submitted and/or presented, session discussant, etc....

PUBLICATION:

Indicate papers submitted and/or published.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

If you desire, indicate what outside activities (e.g. jobs, courses audited) you participate in that are related to your academic performance.
