

The Department of Sociology and the Center for Mexican-American Studies at the University of Texas at Austin invite applications for a tenured associate or full professor position with a starting date of August 2008. We are looking for applicants who specialize in the area of world migration and immigration, focusing on US-Mexico and Latin American immigration. Successful candidates must present evidence of teaching and research publication excellence, and potential for securing external research funding. She/he would be appointed in the Sociology Department, and have an affiliation with the Center for Mexican-American Studies and the Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies. Screening will begin December 15, 2007 and continue until the position is filled. Interested candidates should submit a letter of application, a curriculum vita, a writing sample, and contact information for three references to: Search Committee Chair (Immigration/CMAS), Department of Sociology, 1 University Station A1700, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712. The University of Texas is an AA/EEO employer. A background check will be conducted on the successful candidate. Position funding is pending budgetary approval.